

SAINT IGNATIUS CREW

Saint Ignatius Crew: Cleveland's most successful rowing program since 1989

- Saint Ignatius Crew travels around the country to train and compete against the nation's top rowing teams. The team takes an annual spring training trip to South Carolina and sends qualifying crews to the national championships every May.
- Saint Ignatius Crew regularly fields around eight 8-man shells each year. The Varsity 8 earned a Midwest Championship in 2015, the program's first in 10 years. The team won the team points title at Midwest in 2018.
- The Wildcats sent three boats to SRAA Nationals in 2019.
- The Junior 8 won the national championship in 2019.
- The Wildcat Navy were crowned Midwest champions in 2022.
