SAINT IGNATIUS

Welcome and thank you for your interest in Saint Ignatius High School. Saint Ignatius High School, a Catholic all-boys high school, located in beautiful Ohio City, Ohio. Our education forms students to be open to growth, Intellectually competent, religious, loving, and committed to social justice. Graduates emerge as Men for Others.

Through this inquiry form, all eighth grade families will gain access to our new admissions portal and will have the ability to:

- Check your son's progress from inquiry to application and decision
- Register for admissions events, including Open House and Wildcat for a Day shadowing
- Register for the 8th Grade Admissions Test (High School Placement Test)
- Complete our Application Form
- Communicate with the Admissions Team

From here, you'll scroll to the section "How can we help you today?" From the choices listed, you will be able to schedule the High School Placement Test (HSPT), schedule your time for our Open House, schedule a phone call with the Admissions Office, or simply inquire about us. To schedule Wildcat for a Day shadowing, you will need to create a Parent Portal Account.

Step 3. – About the Student

This section is all about your son. You will need to fill out a separate inquiry form for each student.

When you get to the anticipated graduation year from high school question, current 8th grade students will graduate in 2029.
